

OUR HISTORY

Development Phase: Southern Africa

OUR HISTORY

■ Acquisition Phase: Southern Africa

OUR HISTORY

■ International Growth Phase    ■ International Integration Phase

2005

Acquired an interest in the Wits Donald Gordon Medical Centre in Johannesburg.

Acquired the remaining 40% interest in ER24, now a wholly owned subsidiary.

Acquired Mediclinic Legae in Mabopane.

Wits University Donald Gordon Medical Centre

Patientcentred. Entrepreneurial. Academic.

2007

Acquired a controlling interest in Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) in Dubai which became unconditional.

Extended international operations with the acquisition of a 100% interest in Hirslanden, the leading private hospital group in Switzerland, operating 13 private acute care facilities. This coincided with the 75th anniversary of the group's Klinik Hirslanden.

2006

Acquired facilities from the Protector Group, adding four hospitals to the Group.

Concluded agreement to acquire a controlling interest in Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, which then owned one hospital, the rights to develop two further hospitals in the Dubai Healthcare City and five clinics.

2008

Management and operating structure of the Group divided into three divisions – Hirslanden (Switzerland), Mediclinic Southern Africa (South Africa and Namibia) and Mediclinic Middle East (the United Arab Emirates).

Mediclinic's 25th anniversary is celebrated. Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) opened Mediclinic Mirdif (then Welcare Clinic Mirdif) in Dubai.

Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) opened Mediclinic City Hospital (then The City Hospital) in the Dubai Healthcare City.

2011

Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) acquired assets of Mediclinic Dubai Mall (then The Dubai Mall Medical Centre), Mediclinic Arabian Ranches (then Arabian Ranches Clinic) and Mediclinic Meadows (then the Meadows Clinic).

Company name change and rebranding of the Group's holding company from Medi-Clinic Corporation to Mediclinic International plc and rebranding of its operations in Southern Africa from Medi-Clinic to Mediclinic.

HIRSLANDEN  MEDICLINIC

ميدىكلينيك
MEDICLINIC

2010

Mediclinic Southern Africa opened Mediclinic Cape Gate in Cape Town.

Hirslanden acquired Klinik Stephanshorn in St Gallen, Switzerland.

OUR HISTORY

International Integration Phase

2012

Acquired remaining minority interest in Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) increasing its effective shareholding to 100%.

Operations in Dubai rebranded from Emirates Healthcare to Mediclinic.

2013

Mediclinic Middle East acquired two pathology laboratories at Mediclinic Welcare Hospital and Mediclinic Al Sufouh in Dubai.

Mediclinic Southern Africa relocated and expanded Mediclinic Lephhalale in Lephhalale, Limpopo.

2014

Mediclinic Middle East opened Mediclinic Corniche in Abu Dhabi.

Hirslanden acquired a 100% interest in the operating businesses of Clinique La Colline in Geneva and Swissana Clinic AG in Meggen, Lucerne.

Mediclinic Southern Africa opened Mediclinic Gariep in Kimberley, Northern Cape (operated jointly with the existing Mediclinic Kimberley).

Mediclinic listed on the Namibian Stock Exchange as a secondary listing.

2015

Mediclinic Middle East opened Mediclinic Al Hili in Al Ain.

Mediclinic Southern Africa disposed of Mediclinic Kathu.

Mediclinic Southern Africa opened Mediclinic Midstream in Midstream, Gauteng.

Mediclinic Southern Africa opened first day clinic as part of a new day clinic strategy.

The Group acquired a 29.9% interest in Spire Healthcare plc, a UK-based private healthcare group.

2016

Successfully completed the combination of Mediclinic International Limited and Al Noor Hospitals Group plc by way of a reverse takeover of Mediclinic International Limited, resulting in the continued listing of the enlarged company on the London Stock Exchange and secondary listings on the JSE Ltd and the Namibian Stock Exchange.

Mediclinic Middle East acquired the remaining 25% interest in the Al Madar Group of clinics.

2017

Mediclinic Middle East opened the Mediclinic Al Jowhara Hospital in Al Ain.

Mediclinic Middle East commissioned Ghayati (Western Region), Al Yahar (Al Ain), Aspetar Clinic (Al Ain) and Khalifa City A Clinic (Abu Dhabi), while the divestment in certain clinics were identified.

Mediclinic Southern Africa acquired a 34% interest in the Intercare multidisciplinary medical and dental centres.

Al Noor Hospitals Group rebranded to Mediclinic in the Middle East.

Hirslanden acquired main shareholding in Privatklinik Linde, a leading private hospital in Biel.

OUR HISTORY

International Integration Phase

2018

Mediclinic Southern Africa acquired a controlling interest in Intercare's day hospitals.

Mediclinic Middle East opened Mediclinic Parkview Hospital, the largest greenfield construction project by value for the Group.

Hirslanden Clinique La Colline merged with Clinique des Grangettes, with Hirslanden holding a controlling majority share in the new company.

Mediclinic Middle East acquired Dubai-based City Centre Clinics Deira and Me'aisem from Majid Al Futtaim.

Mediclinic Middle East acquired a minority stake in Bourn Hall International MENA Limited, the holding company for the Bourn Hall Fertility Centre in the UAE.

Bourn Hall
FERTILITY CLINIC

2020

Hirslanden acquired Operationzentrum Zumikon, one of Zurich's leading day case clinics.

Hirslanden entered into a collaboration agreement with Medbase, the leading Swiss specialist in family healthcare and part of the Migros Group and subsequently sold its three outpatient clinics to Medbase.

Mediclinic Middle East formed a strategic partnership with the Al Murjan Group in Saudi Arabia with the proposed establishment of a new acute care hospital in Jeddah.

مجموعة المرجان
AL MURJAN GROUP

medbase

2019

Mediclinic Southern Africa relocated Mediclinic Stellenbosch and opened Mediclinic Winelands Orthopaedic Hospital, in partnership with the Institute of Orthopaedics and Rheumatology in Stellenbosch.

Hirslanden disposed of Klinik Belair.

Hirslanden entered into public-private partnership with the University Hospitals of Geneva to establish day case clinic and with Kantonsspital Baselland for musculoskeletal disorder treatment.

Mediclinic Southern Africa acquired the specialised mental hospital Denmar.

Mediclinic Middle East opened Mediclinic Springs, a dedicated paediatric outpatient clinic.

HUG Hôpitaux
Universitaires
Genève

Kantonsspital
Baselland

IOR INSTITUTE OF ORTHOPAEDICS AND RHEUMATOLOGY

MEDICLINIC
WINELANDS
ORTHOPAEDIC HOSPITAL